

Travis Air Force Base

HONORARY COMMANDERS' APPLICATION

PURPOSE: The intent of an honorary commanders program is to educate and increase civic leaders' knowledge and understanding about the Air Force and the installation in an effort to further strengthen support to our military missions, our service members and their families.

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS: To build mutually effective relationships, there must be regular and frequent two-way interaction with base Commanders and Honorary Commanders. Honorary Commanders may anticipate 6-12 visits to Travis AFB during their two-year term. To be selected to participate, Honorary Commanders must be able to commit to attending a minimum of three program-specific events per year.

ELIGIBILITY: Civilian participants will be selected from among non-federal elected or appointed officials, mayors and city officials, chamber of commerce-type group members, school administrators, and others who, because of their position or influence in the community, can positively impact public support for the base. Honorary Commanders will come from a diverse and broad cross-section of the community. This program is targeted towards civic leaders who are not familiar with the base and who represent organizations/businesses that are not currently connected with Travis AFB.

NOT ELIGIBLE TO PARTICIPATE:

- Immediate relatives of current or former Honorary Commanders unless relative is a legitimate civic leader in his or her own right (should not serve concurrently).
- Military retirees
- Ideally, a single representative from each business or organization
- Journalists and reporters, members of Congress or their staff, federally elected or appointed officials
- DoD contractors or subcontractors nor those seeking to do business with the base
