Travis students participate in Annual Freedom Walk

TRAVIS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. – Scandia and Travis Elementary schools will participate in the Annual Freedom Walk Sept. 11 beginning at 8:15 a.m. at the Travis Airman and Family Readiness Center to commemorate the events of 9/11.

Students will walk from their school to the Airman and Family Readiness Center where they will present poems and sing songs as part of a September 11 presentation. The Travis Honor Guard will perform a flag folding ceremony and the Band of the Golden West Brass Ensemble will provide a live music performance. Col. Theresa Weems, 60th Air Mobility Wing vice commander, will also speak to the students about the significance of the day.

Media is invited to the base at 8 a.m., Sept. 11, with opportunities including photos, b-roll, and interviews.

For questions and to RSVP, contact 60th Air Mobility Wing Public Affairs at 707-424-2011 or email 60AMWPA@us.af.mil.

About Travis Air Force Base: Travis is comprised of our host unit, the 60th Air Mobility Wing, along with the 621st Contingency Response Wing, the 349th Air Mobility Wing and more than 50 partner organizations, with more than 26,000 Travis active duty, reservists and civilian employees assigned. The 60th Air Mobility Wing is the largest air mobility organization in the Air Force with a versatile fleet of C-5M Super Galaxy and C-17 Globemaster III cargo and KC-10 Extender refueling aircraft. As the host unit of Travis Air Force Base, the wing controls more than $11 billion in total resources and handles more cargo and passengers than any other military air terminal in the United States. Travis is the West Coast terminal for aeromedical evacuation aircraft returning sick or injured patients from the Pacific area. For more information, go to www.travis.af.mil.*
