

Honoring Hometown Heroes

2019 Travis Air Show Thunderbirds Hometown Heroes Flight

The Air Force Thunderbirds and 60th Air Mobility Wing Public Affairs office would like to offer an incentive flight for one individual to fly in the cockpit with the USAF Thunderbirds as part of their Hometown Hero program. This program is designed to showcase American citizens doing amazing things in their communities, paralleling the amazing efforts put forth by America's Airmen every day. Heroes might include, but are not limited to: an average citizen who heroically saved a life, a renowned teacher, a community humanitarian volunteer, a local firefighter, a paramedic or police officer, one who mentors children or volunteers as a coach or tutor in a youth program, or someone who dedicates their life to working with at-risk children. Please include a reason for the nomination and a bio picture along with this application. Please note that people ineligible for this program include, but are not limited to: active-duty military members, elected and appointed officials, unit honorary commanders, newscaster, reporters, board directors or other individuals who have the ability to garner publicity in their own rights.

*If you would like to submit someone as a Hometown Hero, please review the requirements and fill out the form below. These need to be e-mailed back to 60AMWPA@us.af.mil or amber.carter.3@us.af.mil by Jan. 31, 2019.
